Traditional charm, classic views and modern comforts in Porto Rafael! Part of the exclusive Porto Rafael enclave on the northeastern coast of Sardinia, this stunning luxury villa looks out over the hillside to the light blue sea. Invite up to ten guests to enjoy the rustic architectural details alongside state-of-the-art entertainment areas. Arched doorways, stone floors, brick fireplaces and vintage wooden doors give the villa's interiors a quaint, vintage look. But the furnishings are stylish and modern, such as the roll-arm sofas and rough-hewn coffee table in the living room, and the wicker chairs around the dining table. Beamed ceilings lend homey appeal in the fully equipped kitchen, which conveniently opens to the al-fresco dining area.

Layout

The property opens to a gorgeous terrace facing the water, with daybeds and loungers scattered around an infinity pool. Covered sitting and dining areas are a respite from the sun, and a pizza oven and barbecue make it easy to try out local specialties. Inside, the villa is as well appointed as a resort, with amenities from a home theater and sauna to a games room with ping-pong and foosball tables. Each of the five bedrooms has a private en-suite bathroom with stand-alone shower for your comfort: the master suite with an al-fresco shower, four bedrooms with king beds. Beamed ceilings, warm neutral tones and views of the countryside make the bedrooms serene retreats where you'll want to linger.

Location

The villa is a short walk or drive from five different beaches where you can swim in the island's famously clear water or take a honeymoon-worthy stroll over fine golden sand. It's a quick trip down to the Porto Rafael marina to marvel at the yachts and oceanfront views. And the Olbia area is well worth exploring, from the gorgeous Costa Smeralda and chic resort of Porto Cervo to the historic town of Olbia itself.
